Old Hickory Council, BSA/Camp Raven Knob
Historical Association

8. The Owner acknowledges the Owner's responsibility to keep The Association informed of a current mailing address.
9. The Association undertakes to protect by means set forth in this paragraph the Owner's interest in the materials loaned in exchange for the permission hereby granted to allow (except as noted in Term 10 below) visitors to The Association's facilities both to examine the materials covered by this agreement and to receive copies, to the extent they can be photocopied, of specific items for personal use. Records pertaining to the use(s) of these materials covered by this agreement will be kept by The Association, and, if copies are made, visitors ordering or making the copies will be required to agree in writing to use the copied material solely for personal use. Visitors will be advised as well that use for any other than personal research or educational instruction is regulated by these laws of copyright.
10. The itemized attachment(s) below state the Owner's required restriction(s) on access and use of the materials covered by this agreement (or a stated portion of them) for specified period(s) of time and further state how access and use shall be permitted during the period(s) in which the restriction(s) pertain(s):
- No restrictions
 - Restrictions as noted below

11. The Association may apply greater restrictions on access to all or part of the materials covered by this agreement for ethical, legal, or preservation reasons.
12. The Association may, without notice or fee to the Owner, publish, in whatever form(s) it chooses, description(s) of, catalog(s) to, or other announcement(s) of the availability and contents of the materials covered by this agreement.
13. The Association may, without notice or fee to the Donor, make copies of any of the materials covered by this agreement for purposes of preservation and, within the limits set forth in these Terms, public use.
14. Except for limited periods, when certain portions of the materials may be undergoing preservation treatment, the Owner has the right of on-site access to the materials covered by this agreement at all times that the facility housing its historical material is open to the public. Further, except as noted below, the Owner may receive copies to the extent that they can be photocopied, of any of the materials covered by this agreement upon request. The Owner shall be responsible for payment of the usual and customary charges for such copies except as such charges may be waived in particular instances for courtesy copies of small bodies of material. When provision of such copies may be deemed by The Association dangerous to the physical preservation of the original materials that are to be copied, The Association may decline to make the copies.
